Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

People brought their boys and girls to Jesus so he could bless them.

The disciples tried to discourage them. But Jesus said,

“Let the children come to me” (Mark 10:14).

Jesus loves every child. And he loves you!

Use each of these letters once to complete the spelling of some boys' and girls' names.

HAIL, MARY, FULL OF GRACE

Today is the memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary.

In fact, the entire month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary.

The Mysteries of the Rosary—Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious, and Luminous—help us think about events in the life of Jesus.

We also remember what Luke had written about Mary in his Gospel: “Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart” (Luke 2:19). Throughout her life Mary shared her Son’s joys and sorrows. She is a model for us. We too should think about the life of Jesus and discover how we can become closer to him and live as one of his followers. We can ask Mary to help us to be a true disciple, just as she was.

The Hail Mary is the main prayer of the rosary. We can say the Hail Mary every day, asking Mary to pray for us so that we might be more like her. The phrases of the prayer are scrambled here. Cut out the strips and arrange them in the proper order. Think about what each phrase teaches us about Mary. When you have completed the prayer, pray the Hail Mary together with your family.

 pray for us sinners

 blessed are you among women,

 Jesus.

 Hail Mary, full of grace!

now and at the hour of our death.

 The Lord is with you;

 Holy Mary, Mother of God,

 Amen.

 and blessed is the fruit of your womb,

God let Adam name all the animals.

What fun that must have been!

Count each kind of animal and then write that number at the bottom.

Where do we see these types of animals? Circle that place.
