Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus preached that if we “save” our life for ourselves, we’ll end up losing it.

Use the coin code to find what we’ll gain
if we “lose” our life to him instead.

CORPORAL WORKS OF MERCY

In today's second reading (James 2:14-18) James reminds us that if we say to someone in need, "Go in peace, keep warm, and eat well," but don't follow it up with our good works, like giving them warm clothes and a meal, they will still be cold and hungry. The Church names seven good works, called the corporal works of mercy, that we are all encouraged to perform to help others. "Corporal" means "relating to the body."

Look through this list with an adult in your family. If you have already performed or are now performing a particular work of mercy, check the box and describe what you do. If you are not performing one of these works, write how you can begin to do it.

You might have to think about different ways to look at the last two works. Are jails the only kind of prison? People can feel as though they are "in prison" in many ways. People who are isolated and forgotten need visiting, too. How do you assist in burying the dead? You may already be doing these works in ways you don't expect.

In addition to the good works you do, always remember to say a prayer for all people in need.

Work of Mercy	We do this.	We are going to do this.

Our faith and works need to go “hand in hand” if we want to do God’s will.

Match the hands below to make word combinations that also work well together.
