

You can help protect all God's children

Please be aware and watchful. . .

In the Diocese of Tyler all Church personnel (that is: priests, deacons, religious, employees and those volunteers who come in regular contact with minors or vulnerable adults) have committed in writing to observing the following code in their life and ministry in the Diocese of Tyler.

You need to know that as part of our Church's witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ, it is imperative that all Church personnel in the Diocese consistently act with ethics and integrity. People of all ages deserve to be respected and protected in their relationships with Church personnel. Defining healthy and safe relationships is not meant, in any way, to undermine the strength and importance of appropriate personal contact or the ministerial role. Rather, it is to assist all who fulfill the many roles that create the living Church to demonstrate their love and compassion for children and adults through sincere and genuine relationships.

Your awareness of these key points will help create a safe and healthy environment for all.
